

MADEAUX
by Richard Smith

Spring Garden

Welcome to our first new collection for 2021 - 'Spring Garden'.

The last year gave us time to reflect, gather inspiration from nature and think meaningfully about what Madeaux stands for - the result is a collection full of optimism and quiet, good taste.

Our collection of hand painted designs feature rich and joyful hues from striking garden florals, to sophisticated climbing vines. Textural rattan motifs are printed on grasscloth wallcovering in delicious colourways, and a geometric motif brings a touch of modernity to our new favourite weave 'Heather'.

Shown alongside a small selection of coordinating fabrics and wallpapers from the existing collection we think you will enjoy our selections.

Please check the boxes as required, complete your contact details on the last page, "Save As...." and email to your sales person.

Bacchus

A stylised rendition of a classic design - grapes and vine leaves climb through a square trellis, the natural motifs are embellished with texture and small patterns to give a whimsical feel. The design is printed on a stunning new textured cloth which works so well with the neutral colours used in both colourways to give a versatile fabric that would work well in both a traditional and contemporary room.

Available in 2 colourways, 01 Amethyst, 02 Sandstone

82% Rayon / 18% Linen, printed in the UK

Lucia

Loosely based on seventeenth century crewelwork embroidery. Using various ageing processes to the original artwork (including sandpaper!) I have softened the historical context of this design making something entirely new that would sit equally well with a Paisley as it would a geometric. The stubby linen and cotton ground further enhances the original artwork.

Available in 2 colourways, 01 Mineral, 02 Olive

Scrolling Leaves

Drawn from classic ancient Roman decoration, the scrolling Acanthus leaves have been repainted with gentle and fluid brushwork to create an enchanting “stripe”. A vertical line of gentle dashes suggest stitches and hold the motifs together. Printed on our linen herringbone in two very different colourways.

Spring Garden

A bouquet of flowers gathered from the garden - Tulips, Anemone, Rhododendron and Fern were all painted in watercolour and arranged in a classic floral layout. Printed on a fine, pure cotton lawn with a glaze, the striking colourways and large scale give it a modernity and brings this new floral it right into the 21st century.

Available in 2 colourways, 01 Black, 02 Blue

Jajim

The ancient Persian rug that lends its name to this fabric was traditionally woven as a vertical stripe - our new multi coloured stripe is woven as a horizontal which gives a more modern feel, and like our popular "Berber Stripe" uses wool and a touch of alpaca to give a gloriously soft handle. It works beautifully both as curtains and also for sofas, ottomans and armchairs where it could be railroaded.

Available in 2 colourways, 01 Red, 02 Camel

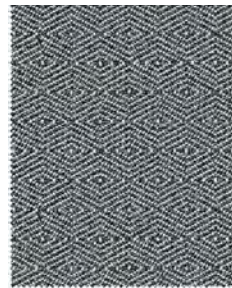

30% Cotton / 28% Wool / 28% Polyacrylic (PAN) /
12% Polyester (PES) / 2% Alpaca (WP)

Heather

The colour possibilities of this new woven were infinite as the fabric combines several different yarns to give a “heathered” effect - hence the name. Almost impossible to choose our favourites we managed to narrow it down to eleven glorious colourways that work with the existing collection beautifully. The scale of the diamond motif brings a modernity to the design and it has great durability - could this be a new classic?

Available in 11 colourways, 01 Strawberry Blonde, 02 Salt & Pepper, 03 Silver Fox, 04 Denim, 05 Indigo, 06 Sea Kelp, 07 Sage, 08 Golden Moss, 09 Chocolate Chip, 10 Forest Fruit, 11 Garnet

Rattan Grasscloth

I can't imagine a space that wouldn't be improved with this wallpaper! A hand painted rattan motif is printed on grasscloth to give an "almost plain" wall covering. Nine mouth-watering colourways are on an ivory ground to give infinite decorating possibilities and a further three use a chunky metallic ground, full of natural charm, as a ground to more sophisticated neutrals.

Available in 12 colourways, 01 Ecrú, 02 Biscuit, 03 Gold, 04 Seacloud, 05 Blue, 06 Celery, 07 Sage, 08 Pumpkin, 09 Coral, 10 Silver, 11 Bronze, 12 Taupe
