

SENIOR TEXTILE DESIGNER

Madeaux are a Sussex-based brand designing high-end textiles and wallpapers and wholesaling to interior designers and architects worldwide.

We are looking for a hands-on textile designer with studio experience to help Richard Smith, our creative director and founder, create several collections each season of printed, embroidered and woven textiles and wallpapers across different brands.

You will be able to demonstrate an organized and systematic approach to product development from initial concept right through to launch. Familiarity with CAD design and experience working with different mills is essential, knowledge at the top end of the interior design market in the UK and USA would be a bonus.

Working in Rye, East Sussex for 3 or 4 days a week this is a full time post although could be flexible for the right candidate. Rye is a beautiful ancient town on the coast surrounded by beautiful countryside, 70 minutes on the train from London St.Pancras.

This is a very exciting, varied opportunity and offers an attractive salary based on experience for the successful candidate.

To apply, please send a copy of your CV together and a link to your portfolio with a covering letter detailing why you think this is the opportunity for you to media@madeaux.com.

What would your day look like?

- Working closely with Richard
- Liaising with suppliers and technical, marketing and buying staff to plan and develop designs
- Ensuring that projects are completed on time
- Assessing and approving completed items and production standards

What do we expect of you?

- Experience using CAD software
- Knowledge of multiple print and other manufacturing techniques
- Experience of working with mills
- Excellent communication at all levels

What can you expect of us?

- A friendly, creative and flexible culture
- A fast-growing organisation with opportunity to develop with the company
- A drive for continuous improvement, for which you will be empowered to get behind from day one